

Midwest Public Affairs Conference Teaching Public Administration Conference

Indiana University Purdue University at Indianapolis

Our conference meetings and sessions were held in the IUPUI Campus Center

The Informal Welcoming session on Wednesday evening was held at the charming Tavern on South

The Thursday evening Reception was held at the at the Indiana State Museum

Michael Ford, the MPAC President was a great host

Lois Warner, SPAE Chair-Elect did a wonderful job of organizing TPAC participation

Mary Guy, ASPA Past President and Professor of PA at the University of Colorado gave the Keynote Address

Highlighting Some of The Presentations

Richard Jacobs Addressing Ethical Lapses

Stephanie Dolamore Experimental Learning to Support Tenants Facing Eviction

Lois Warner Using Analytic Mechanisms

Stephen Brown & Linda-Marie Sundstrom Making Your Online Classroom Come Alive

Matthew Record Enhancing In class Participation through Technology

Stefan Perun - Developing Ethical Competence Through MPA Curriculum

Pamela Dunning How to Get the Most out of Using Budget Simulations

Manuel Roman-Basora Inequalities in American Unincorporated Territories